

2024 Recognition for Industry Presentation – Brad Bennett

The Recognition for Industry Award celebrates those who have not only excelled in their careers but have also contributed to elevating Australian hospitality on the global stage. Tonight, we are proud to honour Brad Bennett, a leader whose passion for the industry and dedication to education have left a profound impact both here and abroad.

Brad began his journey in hospitality at the age of 16 as a kitchen hand with the Myer Emporium in Adelaide, South Australia. Over the last four decades, he has built a remarkable career spanning restaurant ownership in Melbourne, professional experience in London and Monaco, and lecturing on hotel management and Western cookery at Chengdu University of Technology in China.

As the founder and CEO of Le Culinaire Hospitality Institute, Brad has used his global perspective to promote Australian hospitality training to the world. Through his leadership, Le Culinaire has become a beacon of excellence, known for producing graduates equipped to succeed in a competitive global market.

Brad's commitment to excellence is further reflected in his numerous accreditations, including his 2020 certification as a World Chefs Culinary Educator. His ability to translate years of professional and international experience into impactful teaching ensures his students receive not only knowledge but also inspiration to forge their own paths in the industry.

Brad's efforts to position Australian training on the global stage, combined with his broader vision for the future of hospitality, have made him a respected and influential figure.

It is my honour to present the 2024 Recognition for Industry Award to Brad Bennett, a visionary educator, leader, and ambassador for Australian hospitality training. Brad, please join us on stage.
